FINAL CONFLICT

Final Conflict is produced to offer people a political, cultural and economic answer to the forces of internationalism.

Whilst most of our articles etc. are serious, FC does at times use humour and on occasion takes a light-hearted look at the world, for Nationalists must take a break now and then.

It is published by National Revolutionary activists and is independent of all political organisations; though editorially it supports the International Third Position (ITP).

FC welcomes contributions from readers, which upon publication become the copyright of FC. Written matter should be typed in double spacing and artwork should be in black ink.

Those wishing to reproduce articles, artwork, interviews, photographs etc. from FC should first gain the written permission of the editors, and then publish the name and address of FC with the reprinted matter.

CROATIA

Many people have questioned our support for Croatia in the war that is currently tearing the Balkans apart. They say that it is a Brothers War and that fellow Europeans are killing each other and so we should take a 'neutral' stance. After all there are 'Nationalists', 'fascists' etc. on both sides (Croatian and Serbian) and both sides have their leftists also.

People have also said that the Muslims should be attacked for bringing a bad religion into Europe and having non-White mercenaries on their side.

Let us first of all clarify a few points. Serbia, whether Nationalists there like it or not, is the rump of the Yugoslav Communist State and wants to rebuild a (Red) Empire. It is Serbia who invaded Croatia. The Croatians did not invade Serbia, they are not the aggressors.

We do not side with the Bosnians because they are not 'the angels' that our media would have us believe they are. They have attacked both Croatians and Serbians whilst crying out for arms from 'the West'. True, they are defending their homeland, but such defense should be open and unashamed, not by giving false accounts to the press and hoping the United Nations will sort out things for you. You may as well hand over your homeland to Zionist America and its 'blue capped' mercenaries in the United Nations.

One thing we should not forget is that the Bosnians are Europeans, not Asians. It is unfortunate that this conflict has made them conscious of their Muslim faith - something most of them didn't follow having a European 'way of life'. However it is to their eternal shame that they have accepted fighters from Arab countries.

Meanwhile some have used religion as a pretext to attack us. 'The Croatians are Catholic' they cry. Well, so are the French, the Spanish, the Austrians, the Lithuanians, the Polish, the Italians and others. Are we to neglect our fellow Europeans because some may disagree with their 'denomination'? - aside from which the Orthodox Serbs (and Greeks, Russians, Ukrainians etc.) have virtually the same beliefs as the Catholic Croatians (Their churches are just as full of paintings of Jesus and Mary and their ceremonies use just as much - probably more - 'smells and bells'). Both religions make the 'sign of the cross'.

We believe the only side in this war which has come out of it with any sort of dignity is Croatia. It is true that liberal Croatian forces have been responsible for killing some Nationalist Croatian forces in a bid to stop the inevitable, but the Nationalists, including the International Brigades, have fought to defend their Croatian homeland with great valour and in doing so have won the hearts and minds of many of their countrymen and doubtless this work will continue after the war, though it may become harder and not so 'glamorous'.

The problem with many Serbian Nationalists is the same as the problem with many Russian Nationalists. They are not Nationalists but Imperialists, wanting to overrun their European next-door-neighbours in order to rebuild old Empires. If they were Nationalists who just wanted the best for their countries and to live and let live with their non-aggressive neighbours, there'd be no problem; however many of these Nationalists are power mad and want to rebuild a State that was Communist, which isn't surprising given that many of them were/are Communists and remember the 'good old days'. We know this doesn't apply to all Serbian or Russian Nationalists - but sadly to far too many it does.

If we are to build a Europe of 100 flags where every European Nation exists in harmony with its neighbour and Brothers Wars are something remembered in school history lessons - something we surely all desire if we are genuine Nationalists - we must rid ourselves of outdated Imperialist 'extreme right wing' (or left wing) ideas of conquering our neighbours. Russian Nationalists who talk of 'taking back' Lithuania, Ukraine etc. are NOT Nationalists. Serbian Nationalists who talk of 'taking back' Bosnia and Croatia are NOT Nationalists. We must learn that every Nation has the right to self-determination if Europe is to prosper and live in real peace, which is what we all want.

DEGRELLE

This issue of Final Conflict is dedicated to Leon Degrelle, Walloonian, European and Christian Nationalist. Although, like so many of his Comrades he did not die a young man, he sacrificed all he had for the glory of Europe and God. It may well be that we shall never see his like again. He was a politician who led from the front, unlike so many others who hid whilst others suffered. Leon Degrelle, R.I.P.

THE IRA, MARXISM AND THE STATE PLOT TO HAND OVER ULSTER

'Counter Information' an Anarchist free sheet touched on the truth in its 39th issue when it moaned about Sinn Fein/PIRA ditching socialism. We have long told our European Comrades that the IRA are not Nationalists, but Marxists. Yet the Anarchists moan that they are now seeking to make themselves look like businessmen, like capitalists with a hint of "nationalism". Well, as always PIRA/Sinn Fein are trying to be 'all things to all men': Nationalists to the Nationalists; Reds to the Reds; and now businessmen to the businessmen (though their only businesses are racketeering, protection rackets and pushing drugs to "their" community). One only has to look at South Africa to see where Sinn Fein's future lies.

The ANC are now working with the "international community" (i.e. kosher capitalists and financiers) and becoming social democrats in public, just as the Reds in the former-USSR have done, and just as Sinn Fein will do. Thus the Reds and the capitalists, overshadowed and controlled by the same (chosen) few people will all become social democrats and fit snugly into the New World Order.

STAYING ON the subject of Republican Terrorism, it was a joy to see Jan Taylor and Patrick Hayes sent to jail - though a return to hanging wouldn't have been amiss. If our European Comrades doubt the 'Redness' of the IRA, they need only look at these two "volunteers". Both were active with Red Action a hardline Communist, Anti-Fascist British organisation and both were in the IRA. Both took part in planting bombs to kill innocent civilians. When will we learn? The time has come to deal with the IRA terrorists. Will Searchlight call for strong police action?

WHEN "SECURITY chiefs" in Ulster were wiped out in a helicopter crash, the media ridiculously said they were on their way to a base in Inverness, many miles away. It has now come to light that they were more likely on their way to an American base Nick Tokczek boasts that he has the largest "extreme right wing" library, owned by a leftist in the UK. He may well be a subscriber to a number of papers and magazines. We advise people involved in any paper etc. to check their lists. the address he gives out is: 5 Beech Terrace, Undercliffe, Bradford, BD3 0PY. He had a booklet published entitled 'The Bigger Tory Vote', by 'AK Press' - an Anarchist print house - in 1991 (see our review pages), and featured on 'The Oil of Sex' compilation LP with the left-wing skinhead band 'The Bural' under the name of 'Nick Toczek's Britanarchists'.

As early as 1978/9 he was sponsored by the South East Arts literature section (short-term writer in residence scheme) which enabled him to stay down South at the taxpayers' expense. And way back in 1972 Mr. Toczek published a quarterly entitled the Little Word Machine. Any further info. on Toczek appreciated.

UNWANTED MAIL

SINCE THE DAY when Adolf Hitler (the world's most famous vegetarian) banned vivisection, Patriots have gone downhill when it comes to animals. This has left the left, mostly the anarchists, to hijack the issue. It has now got the stage where an anarchist group, the Justice Department (JD) have sent a letter bomb to the BNP HQ. The JD started out by just attacking animal abusers, but is now widening its targets to anyone they don't like.

The person who opened this letter bomb could have been a vegan, therefore the JD isn't anything to do with helping animals; it is a terrorist group. Such action is aimed at Nationalists to make us anti-Animal Welfare. DON'T LET THE REDS FOOL YOU!

Post Script: Since the above was written, Ian Anderson of the National Front, has received a "letter" containing chemicals of some sort which resulted in some minor burns. It looks as if this could be the same people (i.e. Green Anarchists). We therefore suggest that anybody whose address is behind a 'Nationalist' PO Box or who is just generally well known, be extremely careful about opening any dodgy looking packages they receive which they are not expecting.

FEMINISM

Was there ever a term so backwards and nonsensical as Feminism? For what does Feminism do? It negates womens' femininity. The feminists would have our women folk working as slaves in bolshevik type tractor factories (hows that for "freedom"?). Wearing boiler suits. There is nothing so unfeminine as a feminist who turns her back on her femininity in her bid to fit in with various shaven headed, lesbian misfits and 'politically correct' ideologues who know nothing of the real world, who know nothing of the beauty of the female, nor the joys of being a mother. Oh no, for them it's the whacky world of hairy armpits, sniffing glue, facial tattoos and dreadlocks or the sterility of the boardroom, the typewriter and 'company loyalty'.

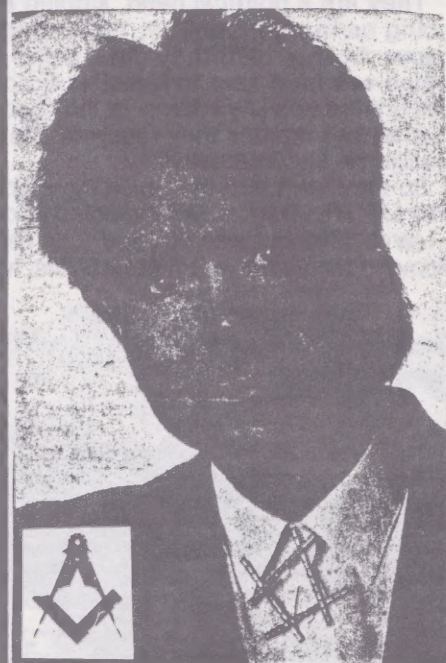

What a future!

on the Isle of Mull, near where the accident happened which would explain why they were flying so low. Why? Because they, and the Americans, want to sort out how to run affairs when the IRA/Sinn Fein declare a ceasefire. This could include a crackdown on IRA extremists who would resist the ceasefire as well as Loyalists. Such an important meeting would explain why so many "anti terrorist" chiefs were on one helicopter. The media has of course mentioned none of this.

SOUTH AFRICA

A DEFECTOR from the ANC who now supports De Klerk's National Party, George Matloketi, says that the Jewish head of the South African Communist Party (SACP) Joe Slovo is set to take over the Marxist ANC from Nelson Mandela, though others claim he is after the post of minister of defence.

ARCHBISHOP OF Cape Town, Desmond Tutu, always the friend of left wing terrorists said, to students at Oxford University, prior to the ANC taking power in S. Africa, that it was a "miracle" that the terrorists were in on top level talks with the government. At the same time, Tutu said DeKlerke's government needed to "act decisively" against "right-wing violence". Oh dear, "Rev." Tutu, what ever happened to "tolerance" and "understanding"?

Symbolism means a lot to our enemy. They use every opportunity to rub our faces in the proverbial faeces. They boast and gloat of their power and ruthless hold over this society in a way most people don't recognise. Here we see 'pop' star and liberal Judaic-"Christian" Cliff Richard wearing a ridiculous 'neck-lace' crafted into the symbol of Antichrist Freemasonry.

TRUEBLOOD

A SHORT HISTORY

Trueblood was formed in 1987 with the name 'White Fist', but after some changes in the line up in 1988 they changed their name to 'Trueblood'.

They are a political band, singing about what is really going on in their country; fighting for the White man's cause. In May 1990 they did a demo tape with 4 songs, which was later sent to Rebelles Européens in France to see if there was any interest in the band.

After two months they received a letter back from Gael Bodilis. He was interested.

So they went into the recording studio in February 1991. The LP 'True Desire' was expected to come out in February - March 1993 but was delayed. The band don't know why. Some rumours have it that Rebelles have some problems, and the band have tried to reach Gael, unsuccessfully.

The LP contains 12 songs (all in English) and the line up on it is: Michael: Vocals; Gert: Bass; Niclas S.: Guitar; Niclas T.: Drums. When the 'True Desire' LP comes out the band hope to bring out another LP, probably entitled 'The Colour of our Skin is our Uniform', which they hope will be better than the first LP. That's not to say they think 'True Desire' is bad, but in their opinion they're not happy with all of the songs. However, if the problems with Rebelles continue they may well have to re-record the first LP again as Rebelles have all the old mastertapes etc.

The band now have a new line up: Michal: Vocals; Bjorn: Guitar; Niclas S.: Guitar; Niclas T.: Drums; Patrik: Bass; and Gert helping with management. Just as with the 'True Desire' LP this second one will be in English.

The band played in Gothenburg on November 20th in Gothenburg, with No Remorse and Swastika. The concert was a great success.

The band are now looking for another record label. Anyone interested should contact the band at the address below. They have some T-Shirts available too.

STORKRAFT TURN 'ANTI NAZI'

THERE HAVE been rumours going around that the German Nationalist band Storkraft have betrayed their roots and turned 'anti fascist'. Now Final Conflict can confirm these rumours. The German press was full of the story, and Jorg of Storkraft told their story to 'Moderne Zeiten'. He was asked to explain why they said "damned bald headed mob" about Nationalist skinheads. He replied that it was because concerts would be trashed, people 'seig heiling' to songs against drugs, for friendship etc. and people being paralytically drunk. The band then went on to blame events at Rostock, Moelln etc. which threw them back "10, 20 years".

Since the interview they released an LP with anti-racist material on it. In our opinion, the 'change' is a result of a few factors, primarily that the band was up in court for 'race hate' offences. This was a way out of that quagmire. If you look at them closely, their reasons in the interview do not add up. Of course there are bad people around and there are idiots who wreck halls which then cannot be used again, but any decent band would try and sort the situation out and stay loyal to their beliefs - not 'sell out' to get yourself out of legal trouble and get on MTV, a tour of Europe and increased LP sales (or so they hope).

Any decent German Nationalist would be aware of a few basic facts when it comes to Rostock etc. Firstly, the attacks cannot be blamed purely with skinheads. Rather, most 'attacks' were carried out by youngsters from local communities. Secondly, the attacks took place because of the terrible behaviour of the immigrants and because all sorts of petitions etc. by local communities to the politicians were ignored. Of course as soon as one 'attack' was successful, copycat incidents are bound to escalate.

To conclude, if one has genuine grievances with the Nationalist Movement in general, you should air them and try to change what you think is wrong. You should certainly not use them as an excuse to ball out and save your hide.

A VISIT TO SOLSBURY HILL

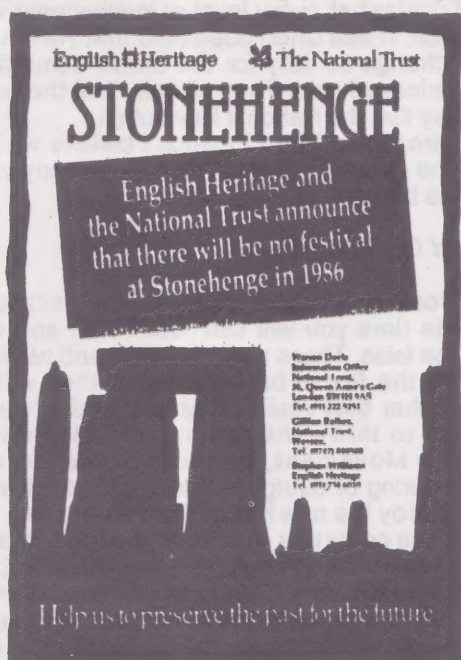

THE STATE IS OUT TO DESTROY YET MORE OF OUR HERITAGE. CAPITALISM DEMANDS THAT PROFIT COMES BEFORE OUR BIRTHRIGHT. THE THUGS IN BLUE DEFEND BIG BUSINESS AS THEY DESTROY OUR LAND. FACED WITH THIS NATIONALISTS HAVE TO FIGHT BACK. SOME ALREADY ARE...

IN MAY, five Third Position activists decided to attend the protests at Solsbury Hill. For those people who do not know what is going on there, the government is attempting to build a 'Euro-motorway' straight through Wansdyke, Bath and Northavon. The Avon Valley is already polluted well beyond 'EU'/EEC limits but this has no effect on those people whose only aim is profit.

Already nine houses have been demolished, with dozens of people evicted and a water meadow destroyed.

NEW AGERS

To many, the only people who seem to be campaigning for an end to the destruction of our rural countryside are New Age travellers or Friends of the Earth. However many locals were out in force to protest against this un-needed destruction of this part of our green and pleasant land. Another good reason for protest is the fact that the new road will cut through Solsbury Hill, an ancient burial site and home to an Anglo Saxon hill fort. We feel that this is yet another attempt by the State to deprive us of our heritage. It is disgraceful the way in which the State either destroys the hill forts and burial sites or turns them into consumer pay-as-you-look profitable commodities like Stonehenge ("Well it brings in the tourists (and the shekels)" says the fat alien Capitalist).

Stonehenge is a part of our history and heritage. Neither massed police ranks nor turnstyles should keep us from it.

When we arrived the protesting had already begun. Shouting, swearing and plenty of anger but the protesters were determined not to be provoked by the police or the thugs known as the 'private security'. We joined in and attempted to stop the machinery and tree-felling.

A couple of TP members climbed up into the trees along with others so that they couldn't be cut down. The thugs in blue began to burn tyres to try and smoke them out. To think that this is hardly covered in the press would be unbelievable if we didn't know who controlled it. It was extremely difficult seeing the brutal tactics of the security guards and not doing anything permanent about it, except for making life as difficult as possible for them. The police were obviously hoping for us to become physical so they could arrest us all.

THUGGERY OR STARVATION

At one point I got talking to one of the security guards and found that he had been coerced into accepting the job or having his dole money stopped. What an indictment of the system which we live under where people are forced to become little better than hired thugs or starve.

People were chaining themselves to machinery and we were busy helping to keep the tree fellers at bay. At the end of the day (after a well deserved drink) we walked round the local area giving out leaflets explaining what we'd been doing. Apart from one or two people, the reaction was excellent and many were eager to know more about the Third Position.

HARM

Some of you reading this will possibly disagree with us attending events like this, but all true Nationalists will realise that there is more to the struggle than just Race and economics. If we truly love our land then we must be prepared to battle for it. Not just against alien invaders but against anybody who seeks to harm our Nation, be it through usury, abortion or through destroying our heritage and our birthright.

We are not worshippers of 'Mother Earth' nor pantheists; but we will not stand idly by while Capitalists make our country into a concrete jungle.

LONG LIVE THE REVOLUTION!

THE QUEST

The endless quest, or so it seems sometimes, to find inside oneself the fanaticism to believe in a political Movement or theory to the point that even Death itself may be far more acceptable than living amongst or within a society which is both morally and culturally diseased, is a Crusade which can last a lifetime and, for some, may never be achieved.

This feeling deep inside which stirs the heart and soul is like a cleansing, burning fire to search for something better. To search for a life that has some sort of meaning and is actually worth living.

The cancer which has taken over society has, at some stage or another, made even the most stout-hearted Nationalists despair. Many have fallen by the wayside, never to return to the battle, whilst others have marched on knowing that for them there is no resting place. They can never give up the fight for Faith, Family and Nation, even though all around them Darkness reigns, they must persevere.

It is then that the spark of defiance ignites the flame and the feeling of rebellion takes hold. The realisation that you do not have to be a part of that society which you have grown to despise and detest; that there is a real alternative. The International Third Position is the Beacon of Light, the answer to your heart's yearning.

THE FAILURE TO FIND THE ANSWER

The youth of today have been brought up in an extremely hostile, drug-ridden, diseased, multi-racial society which has seen them leave school without any decent education and head straight for the nearest unemployment office or dead end job.

In this sort of environment crime has grown rampant and respect for law and order in society has become non-existent. Family values have been bought and sold, and children have been subjected to cruelty and neglect. Many will go out into the world from a broken home.

The yearning for something better points you in the direction of political solutions. At first you seem to have found what you searched for, but as you have come to expect, reality quickly brings you down to earth.

The various organisations that you have become affiliated to all have good intentions, but have many holes in their policies and programmes. You appear to be going from pillar to post. The desire to seek out all that is good, for your Race and Nation is the main source of your enthusiasm, but what about the other equally serious issues that have become important to you? So you attempt to encourage debate on important issues that will fill the gaping holes in the standard policy statement. But to no avail, your requests seem to fall on deaf ears.

But you persevere, in the hope that eventually things will change. The leadership may well be considering a change of direction, they may even eventually listen to common sense instead of the old cliché of 'left' and 'right'.

Ideas such as Distributism, Rural Revolution, Family of Nations, Racial and Cultural Pride are all interlocked in our heritage and destiny; yet many cannot see such a wonderful vision of things as they could and should be. They would prefer, much to the relief of our enemies, to stick to tried and tested worn out ideas that have been a millstone around the neck of the Nationalist cause for the past 20 years.

The time has come for a new way forward: A positive, forward thinking ideology which will bring us victory. The International Third Position, from its formation has seen where the Nationalist fight has been going wrong for so long. When we learn to dissolve power down to the lowest level (within unnegotiable moral laws) and distribute wealth and land equally amongst our people, we will then take a pride and an interest in all sections of our community. The family will become the cornerstone of the new ideology, the new society.

For the first time in many years I actually feel that I am happy and content at every level of involvement with the Third Position. It has often been said that Revolutionary ideas that change society for the better come from the hearts and minds of men. They actually feel the good that they do. They live the National Revolution.

In the International Third Position I believe we have all now found the quest that has eluded us for many years ... the reason to believe!

THE ENEMY OF THE PEOPLE

Along the road to sacrifice you will come across many whom at one time you will call "comrade" and who will turn out to be false. These men are weak and will never be hardened by the fire of battle. Instead they will do the bidding (whether they realise it or not) of the 'dark ones' and attempt to throw the spanner of discord into the works of the Movement, perhaps by disinformation, rumour mongering or outright attacks on individuals. They will try to destroy the new Nationalism as it grows.

They can see no further than their own selfish ends and will play no part in the struggle that lies ahead to build the National Revolutionary Family of Nations. The fire of re-birth which has grown in the Movement will sweep past them and they will become the authors of their own misfortune.

There will be those who will not and do not wish to understand the Third Positionist ideology. These people will eventually turn their backs on the Movement and try to destroy it. As we have seen from past events, when they show their true colours and their repugnant faces in various left and right wing journals etc.

These vermin which have plagued the Nationalist cause for so long will not have the opportunity to stoop to the levels they have in the past because we have nothing to hide. Our Cause is True. We have created the Crusade that will blind our Comrades to the Third Position forever!

COVENTRY THIRD POSITION.

YOU HAVE BEEN WARNED!

ONE OF THE most regrettable aspects of the juvenile sectarianism which infects most of the Nationalist Movement is that it prevents members of one group learning from the mistakes of another. Thus they are often doomed to waste their own time, energy, money and morale making the same mistakes (something FC has tried to help avoid with our "Learning From the Past" series - Ed). It is all too common for the rank-and-file activists, as well as the leadership, of an organisation, to believe that their own operation is so important and everybody else's efforts so irrelevant, that they refuse to admit that the successes or problems encountered by a "rival" group are of any importance to them.

This has been the attitude of many Nationalists who are not in the BNP to the attack launched on its national press officer, Mike Newland, in the run-up to the May council elections. The attack was so vicious that even the controlled mass media reported it, so everybody heard that it took place. Even so, from most of those outside the BNP, the usual reaction was to "tut tut" and perhaps to reflect on the fact that Mr. Newland's party's high media profile is bound to attract such unwelcome attention from Red thugs.

The same tunnel vision accounts for the fact that no Nationalist group at all gave any coverage to the hammer attack on Libertarian freelance journalist Al Baron, the pro-Jewish but anti-Zionist researcher who over the last year has been waging a one man crusade against Gerry Gable, Ray Hill and the rest of the Searchlight crew. Baron's well-researched and damning exposés of these creeps have been mailed to journalists, politicians and police officers all over the country. It is true that, ideologically, Baron is diametrically opposed to our position, but if anything that makes his attacks on Searchlight even more effective. Here is someone fighting a vital battle against our highest profile opponent, yet when three thugs turn up on his doorstep and hospitalise him, no-one even thinks it's worth mentioning. There are none so blind...

"SPECIAL DELIVERY"

In fact, it is absolutely vital that every Nationalist knows exactly what these attacks involved, because once you are aware of the facts, their relevance to us all becomes crystal clear. In Baron's case, three men knocked at his door with a large "special delivery" parcel. He was asked to sign for it, then as he did so, he was grabbed by one of them, whereupon the others produced hammers and gave him a thorough beating. As well as this brutal assault, Baron also suffered a police raid in response to allegations by Searchlight and the Jewish Chronicle that he was publishing anti-Semitic material (nothing could be further from the truth - Baron's pamphlets on the Jewish question are extremely pro-Jewish). During this raid, large numbers of files and his computer were seized by the police (led by a Jewish officer), only being returned after several months.

The action against the BNP's press officer was even more carefully planned and ruthlessly executed. Three men called at his home claiming to be from the council's pest control unit. Although their van bore official-looking signs and they looked the part, he was suspicious. He refused to let them in unless they produced written authority from the council. The foreman accepted this very reasonably, and the three left. Mike Newland took the precaution of making a note of the van registration number, but took no further action.

Two days later, the same three returned, in the same van, same false number plate and same overalls. This time, they even had a letter from the council on official headed-notepaper, so he let them in. Once inside, they seized him, bound and gagged him with tape, sat him on a chair, pulled his jumper over his head and began to beat his head and body with staves and a hammer. They cold-bloodedly broke virtually every bone in his writing hand before leaving him unconscious. On their way out, they took his computer. The beating was so severe that doctors initially feared that he might be paralysed for life. Happily this was not the case and he was back doing political work within a week.

UNHEALTHY INTEREST

It is interesting to speculate whether the thousands of pounds which Yorkshire police had to pay Colin Jordan (ex leader of the NS British Movement - Ed.) recently, as compensation for an illegal raid and seizure of files and other material from his home, has made the S.B. conclude that it is safer to use someone unofficial to collect information on interesting dissidents. Certainly the opposition is taking an unhealthy interest in our computers and files recently.

The lesson to be learnt from these incidents is that the enemy has raised the stakes. Hit-and-run street attacks by Red goon squads with masks and iron bars are a danger we all understand. But the use of small groups of coldly efficient con-men, in all probability hired, to beat and torture people in their own homes, is something new. And while Mike Newland was a very obvious target for all sorts of opposition groups, the type of people with a motive to single out Al Baron for similar treatment are much more select. Perhaps "Chosen" is a better word.

It is also purely significant that the anarcho-Green-Trot Larry O'Hara, who has also produced several well-researched pamphlets exposing Searchlight's links with the secret police was also the target for a "special delivery", although he managed to avoid it.

You don't have to be in the media limelight to be at risk from this new brand of terrorism. Every effective Nationalist must be aware of the risk and be extra-suspicious of anything that could be a new version of the kind of trick outlined above. It seems that the qualification for this kind of attack is to be doing something which gets you mentioned in Searchlight as a serious threat to the nightmare world planned for us by Gerry Gable and his ilk. If you aren't doing something like that, you should be. And if you are, you have been warned!

IN A RECENT Animal Liberation Front Supporters Group (ALFSG) paper, a group of animal rights people (who are openly affiliated to Anti Fascist Action) named a 'fascist' who they say encouraged people to carry out ALF activities. That means, by naming him, they grassed - for political reasons - on an ALF activist, in an ALF paper, which in turn makes the editors themselves grasses. Expulsions all round, eh Comrades?

A WOMAN WHO stabbed her daughter's pregnant 'love rival' was jailed recently for over 2 years for killing the unborn baby. We wonder if "doctors" who do the same will face jail terms too.

MODERN ART

SIGN OF A SICK SOCIETY

IT WOULD be true to say that an age's morality and values are, to a large degree, mirrored in its art. One only has to think of the Europe of bygone days that gave us beautiful paintings, sculptures, monuments and buildings. Most of the things of beauty from our past, came from an age when man created things of worth, when a man put his very soul into what he produced. Those times were times of Faith and culture when whole communities built huge cathedrals and people took a pride in even the most 'normal' task. The people were rooted in their Nation and its soil and the word 'community' actually meant something - something worth living, and dying for.

That we live in a throw away age cannot be contested. Convenience food, made of God only knows what, reigns supreme and a persons' material aims overrule everything else. Thus we see the family thrown aside, like some optional extra, as both husband and wife (or more likely 'both partners' in this age of political correctness and 'cohabitation') seek their own career; as if satisfaction can be gained from the computer screen and board meetings.

In this quest for material comfort we see the ultimate in 'throw away' folly, the wholesale murder of countless unborn babies. Our whole Christian civilisation is being destroyed on the altar of 'job satisfaction' - how very convenient.

That this age of false security, based as it is on debt and usury (visa cards and mortgages) should - quite literally - throw up 'modern art' should be of no surprise, for it fulfills a number of essential roles for this materialist era.

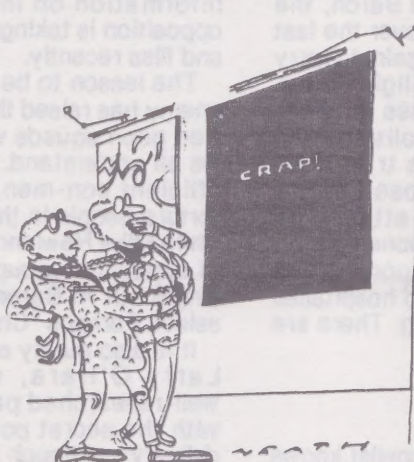

Firstly, and most importantly (as we mentioned earlier), modern 'art' is the outward sign of the inner decay. Modern capitalist society, degenerate as it is in all spheres, obviously must reinforce its full scale sterility through its art. For what use is it to "zombify" a generation only to have them brought to their senses by truly inspirational and breathtaking art being painted, sculpted and built before their very eyes. No, that wouldn't do at all.

So now our young artists are tempted to tread the easy path of modern art, knocking out meaningless rubbish is after all much easier than painting classics like Constable or Michelangelo.

This 'buy now, pay later' era wants cheap shoddy buildings put up today - what matter if they rot in three decades time? We put up what is affordable and 'trendy' today. False economy maybe, eyesore definitely; but this matters not when we have to toe the modernist line.

One only has to think of the modern churches now being built, as compared to the glorious churches built in the "backward" Middle Ages throughout Europe. These modern churches - which differ little in appearance from leisure centres and espouse modern liberal Judaic-Christian nonsense - are a world apart from the beautiful structures that can still be seen across Europe.

"What does it say to you?"

the second role modern art fills is the "get rich quick" one, so essential to this world of stock exchanges and 'wheeling and dealing'. Oh yes, we've all seen the hideous sculptures outside government buildings and art colleges, knocked up by some second rate, but very rich, 'artiste' and bought by some bureaucrat with a budget to fill and more money than sense. And the art dealers are only too happy to fall into line with the con. After all, who are they to complain when there's a percentage in the takings to be had. They can't complain if a painting has a man with five eyes and an ear where the mouth should be if there's a few grand in it for them. It's all money in this world you know...

Picasso, much flaunted by the modern world for his "fine works of art" as well as his anti-fascist leftism, admitted on his death bed that it is all one big con. His paintings still sell for astronomical amounts; and the con still goes on, and on, and on...

And how much more profitable for building contractors if every thirty or forty years they have to knock down the concrete monstrosities they put up because of decay, only to put another up that will have to be replaced in the near future.

The automobile world has taken this line too, dispensing with models, like the Volkswagen Beetle which last too long for their liking, preferring models that need replacing that much sooner and so keeping the money circulating.

Oh yes, whether its art, construction, cars or even unborn babies - everything has fallen victim to this soulless society where the houses with paper thin walls, little better than shoe boxes, are "built" in service of Mammon.

We had better wake up to the emptiness of this once proud civilisation. If we don't then there isn't much hope for the future; junk food, feminism, materialism etc. will march on victorious and the spirit of these island peoples will die whilst the people are busying themselves with things of no worth. We owe it to our fathers and our children to leave a better birthright for future generations than that.

FASCIST LEADS ANAL'S MARCH TO BRIXTONI

copy of the programme because "I gave all my money to the collector at the gate, who was out of programmes." (stop laughing, it worked!)

And then the Levellers hit the stage (although I shouted for 'Take That') and the crowd went wild. Politically they don't know s but their music is great. I did not make any notes, but I remember dancing (bouncing) to One Way; Battle of the Beanfield; 100 Years of Solitude; Belaruse and others. When the singer stopped to talk about "evil nazis" hundreds in the crowd told him to "shut up" and "get on with it" (ie. the music). Maybe I wasn't the only fascist there! Sadly they did not have the bagpipes with them to do the best bit from their last LP. The last number was an encore - the Riverflow - forget the EP this was the real thing. I can now die happy as I've danced to the Levs in a field (park) live.

I then walked back through Brixton with thousands of other Whites and got the tube home. Most of the people there were not political. They went for the music or like me, just for the Levellers. Sadly peer pressure means these folk become anti-Nationalist Whites with a guilt complex. It cost ANAL £100,000 to put the gig on. We are up against massive odds, but we will win and then the scum who joked about Ian Stuart's and Benito Mussolini's deaths will pay the full price!

P.S. I realise some Reds will now spend a lot of time searching through photographs of the march/concert for one of me. If any do find one, please send a copy to me care of Final Conflict.

ANTI NAZI LEAGUE CARNIVAL 1994

124,999 LEFTIES AND ONE FASCIST

Saturday 28th May 1994 the Anti Nazi League (ANAL) had a carnival. "So what" I hear you say. Well the Levellers were playing, so the trip to Brixton's Brockwell park was well worth the risk.

ANAL had a march going to the park which I did not wish to go on as I hate the bastards! But as I walked out of a side street I found myself at the head of the march, much to my horror, the only people in front of me were the police and photographers (plus a few freaks waving 'lolly pops'). So as I walked down the street humming 'Tomorrow Belongs To Me' tens of thousands of mostly White folk followed me singing such gems as "Build a Bonfire and put a Nazi on the Top" and "Can you See the Master Race, No! No!" Sadly I could as most of the mugs singing this were White (over 99% of the people at the park were Aryans).

As I walked into the park I saw MI5 selling one of their magazines (Searchlight). I said "Hello Gerry" as I passed him and Gable said "Hello" back (what fun). I then went around getting free copies of a lot of Red papers etc. I went back and forth between the main stage and the cabaret stage, just killing time before the Levs. The fat 'White' slob from ANAL doing a lot of talking between acts on the main stage gawped about the murder of Mussolini and incited the crowd to do the same with "Today's fascists and nazis!" I doubt his arrest is imminent! There was also a lot of talk about defending freedom and democracy. 'Saint' Mandela ("ex"-Terrorist, Child Killer and Wife Beater) was almost prayed for Billy Brag kissed his a badly.

Some faggot on the cabaret stage did a song about being "Glad to be Gay". Quite a few blokes in the crowd sang along, but when one of them (not far from where I stood) dropped a £50 note, no one bent down to pick it up!

A few bad points (apart from the handful of real Reds and a few non-Whites in the crowd and on stage) I should mention were the lack of face painting and the programme which did not tell you which order the bands would play in. Here I should thank the ANAL steward who gave me a free

Learning from The Past

LEON DEGRELLE AND THE REXIST PARTY

One of the great heroes of our time died in hospital in Malaga, Spain on March 31st. Aged 87, Leon Degrelle never stopped telling people the truth about World War 2 and the people behind it.

Most people reading this magazine will more than likely already know a lot about Degrelle's heroics on the Eastern Front, leading the Walloonian volunteer legion of the Waffen SS in their gallant stand against Bolshevism and how he survived (after being wounded on many occasions) to live on in Franco's Spain.

Therefore we have decided to show how Degrelle fought the enemies of civilisation before the War in the Rexist Party.

Leon Degrelle was born at Bouillon in the Belgian Ardennes on June 15th 1906. The son of a Catholic politician, he read law at university, but decided to become a journalist. While he was at university he became an avid reader of the literature of Charles Maurras, a French Nationalist who believed that the best way forward for a country was outlined in the Papal encyclical 'Quadragesimo Anno'. This encyclical strongly influenced not only Degrelle but also Marshal Petain, Salazar, Mussolini, Dollfuss, Pavelic, Tiso, José Antonio and Franco.

In 1930 Degrelle went to work for a small publishing firm called 'Christus Rex' (Christ the King). At the age of 25 Degrelle took over the firm and decided to print new radical newspapers, Revolutionary, but steeped in Christian Tradition.

Degrelle exposed the bankers, usury and the international money power. The people could not believe how fearless he was and it was their reaction that encouraged Degrelle to launch a movement to take Belgium back from her enemies. He called it the Rexist movement.

The programme of the Rexist movement would be that of Maurras, the idea of the 'Corporate State' a leadership (or State) made up of leading people from all walks of life; from small businessmen to farmers. A return to the ancient guild system and small farm and craft workshop ownership for all people, with the State being used as a guiding hand rather than an iron fist.

One of the most noticeable things about the Rexist movement was its members. Degrelle was aged 28 when he became leader and the majority of the members were 25 years old or younger.

Degrelle's oratory was spellbinding and people travelled hundreds of miles to hear him speak.

We are those who, having nothing to lose and everything to gain, have decided to replace the liberal regime with a new regime and to create a world in which man can truly live. We can expect nothing from the present government against which we are in open insurrection. We would not write a line, we would not say a word, we would not shed a drop of blood, to defend it!

In 1936 the Rexist party polled 271,491 votes and had 12 senators and 21 house deputies to parliament. The Rexist newspaper became weekly and was published in French, Flemish and German. Due to the enormous success of this paper they went on to print a daily French and Flemish newspaper.

PEOPLE TRAVELLED MILES TO HEAR DEGRELLE SPEAK ABOUT THE PROBLEMS FACING BELGIUM

After the success of Mussolini's famous 'March on Rome' Degrelle threatened to do a similar thing by marching on Brussels. Due to intense government provocation, Degrelle realised that the State was in fact hoping for such an attempt so they could imprison the Rexist leaders.

When thousands of Rexist gathered in Cathedral square Degrelle shouted to the premier Van Zeeland "You want dead bodies but I will not give them to you." When Van Zeeland realised that Degrelle knew his game, he ordered his cavalry to charge the Rexist. More than 70 people were injured and 200 arrested.

Degrelle challenged Van Zeeland to call an election and he accepted. However, to show once again the collusion between Capitalism, Liberalism and Marxism, all the other parties (including the Communists) refused to stand and supported Van Zeeland's campaign. Although the odds were stacked against him, Degrelle refused to lay down and give up.

"Our motto is 'sweep away the rotten'. Although we admire certain things that have been achieved in Italy and Germany, we intend to imitate no-one. We shall remain within Belgian tradition. We are against the all powerful government, we shall protect the artisan, the small trader, the farmer, the family.

We stand for discipline, order and social regeneration on a Christian basis. We are against the autocracy of money and the monopoly of industry.

On the eve of the election the liberal Cardinal Van Roey put all his power behind Van Zeeland and it was his influence that was one of the main factors behind Degrelle's defeat.

When war broke out in 1940 Degrelle was arrested, imprisoned and tortured. When Germany invaded Belgium he was freed and immediately started up the Rexist party once more in the hope of establishing Rexist rule in Belgium.

However, as most Nationalists know, when Germany invaded the Soviet Union, Degrelle immediately leapt at the chance of crushing communism once and for all. Despite the Waffen SS's defeat, Degrelle's example lives on. Even after rising to the command of his Walloonian brigade (with the rank of General) in the Waffen SS after joining the German army as a private, Degrelle continued to fight shoulder to shoulder with his men.

After flying from Norway to Spain, Degrelle continued to work for the rest of his life in the hope of another chance to create the spark that will re-ignite the European people. His life and beliefs should serve as an example to all Nationalists. Never give in, fight on; no matter how great the odds seem to be against you.

Leon Degrelle. God bless you. Rest in Peace.

DEGRELLE ON THE BELIEFS OF THE REXIST MOVEMENT:

The individual is endowed with a fundamental dignity which society has no right to interfere with. The individual thrives, not by referring everything to himself in a vain and selfish individualism, but on the contrary by giving up the self and becoming part of the community.

The communities in which the individual thrives are the family, his profession, his cultural and ethnic community, and the national community, all of which combine to constitute the popular community. The role of the State is to serve this popular community.

Today the State has substituted its own well being above that of the people. These regimes have ruined, destroyed and annihilated the rights and prosperity of the people and handed over their rights to the interests of high finance."

REVIEWS

BY COLONEL REGINALD SMYTHINGTON FAULKNER

WELCOME TO A bigger and better review section of FC. There was simply no way I could fit everything I wanted to review into just one page so I faced up to the editor and demanded more space. After careful deliberation of the facts (and an open cheque) he agreed to my having two pages. As usual there's something for everyone, so enough of my witty banter (? - Ed) and let's get on with it.

LITERATURE

'The Bigger Tory Vote' is a booklet by anarchist Nick Tokczek (see page 3). He quite fancies himself as a bit of an authority as far as the "extreme right wing" is concerned, so quite naturally I got myself a copy of his booklet to see what it's like. At first it strikes you as the sort of thing 'Lobster' (an interesting mag which dishes out info on MI6, shady secret state deals etc.) might put out, with links between the State (c/o "ex" MI6 man G.K. Young), the Tories, the Monday Club, Anti-immigration groups, the 70's NF, 'Strasserites', Third Positionists etc. Oh yes, it all seems to fit together so well and to the innocent by-stander would seem quite logical. But to someone who is gathering info. on state infiltration of the "far right" Mr. Tokczek takes a lot of info. from a dubious source - Searchlight. Yes, as Mr. Tokczek's chums at Green Anarchist have made clear, Searchlight is a clearing house for state operatives such as Ray Hill and Tim Hepple and a source of disinformation on the far left and the "far right". One perfect example of this is a slur against Roberto Fiore, leader of the Italian NR movement, Terza Posizione. Tokczek says "Furthermore, it turned out that Fiore had known links with a number of other active right-wing Italian terrorists and, in particular, that he had close connections with the NAR cell known to have carried out the Bologna railway station bombing (1.8.80) in which 85 people were killed and 200 injured." This is nonsense, the like of which Searchlight is well known for dishing out to gullible fools of all political persuasions. It has now been officially confirmed that the bombing was part of an Italian secret state and P2 (powerful 'Italian' Masonic lodge) attempt to frame the young Third Positionists, which the local Communist magistrates fell upon only too eagerly, and the Nationalists' names have been totally cleared.

In the back of his booklet Mr. Tokczek even goes so far as to print in his glossary of abbreviations: NAR Armed Revolutionary Nuclei (Roberto Fiore) thus bestowing upon Mr. Fiore the false accolade of having been leader of the 'NAR', when he wasn't even a member. Genuine mistake or state disinformation?

When Italy requested extradition, the British courts would not accept the flimsy made up evidence, so the Zionist lobby here decided to try and extradite Mr. Fiore on the grounds that he is a "danger" to the British people. Their desperation knew no limits, and now Searchlight, the state financed magazine, bitter from defeat continues the charade; one issue he's a "convicted" terrorist - a blatant lie - the next he's working for the state - another blatant lie, and a funny one too coming from a clearing house for state agents and a disinformation centre.

One wonders where Mr. Tokczek stands in all this. Is he just a misguided 'lefty' taken in by Searchlight's glossy appearance or is he a willing tool of the disinformation peddlers? ...

FIGHTING TALK?

FIGHTING TALK is the journal of Anti Fascist Action (aka 'AFA' or 'The Legion of the Unwashed'). They were kind enough to give FC a big plug in issue 5 so we thought we'd repay the compliment. In issue 6 they feature the death of Ian Stuart and print: "What with Violent Storm last year and now Skrewdriver, we think the time is now right to reveal the existence of 'the Mechanic'. If you see anyone from AFA remember how they've derided our dead comrades. Need we say more?"

In the same issue there's an article entitled 'Fascism and the Unions' which has the following sub-headings: 'Trade Unions and the Struggle against Fascism'; 'Trade Unions and Fascism in Britain'; 'Fascists in the Unions'. Wow. A boring read is ensured.

The would-be "revolutionaries" really slip up though in an interview with a "German Comrade". Here the AFA working class myth is dealt a mortal blow. The Comrade is asked about the make-up of the German AFA (and they don't mean amongst the faggots) we're told "most of the political activists have a middle class background, few workers are involved in the movement, they are rather the exception. The working class plays no part in the anti-fascist struggle. And, sad but true, there are more working class people marching with the fascists than on our side." Ho ho ho. When will the little rich kids stop kidding themselves? This just confirms what we've always known about the lefties - rich aliens and middle class kids.

COLUMBA

COLUMBA is an excellent book by Nigel Tranter. It's the story of a missionary of the Celtic Church as he tries to win over the Scottish Picts to Christianity. The story features Iona which St. Columba made into the centre for his missionary work. This book shows how the Scots originally came from Ulster and how the Ulster folk were fighting their neighbours in Southern Ireland whilst the Scot settlers in what was to become Scotland weren't on very friendly terms with their Pict neighbours.

This book really takes you back to what Tranter calls "the high, heroic days of the Celtic Church". An excellent book, this will keep you enthralled as Columba travels into unknown realms and wins friends and enemies amongst the people and the warriors. Available from bookshops in Coronet Books, ISBN 0 - 340 - 50826 - 4.

IRON HEEL

IRON HEEL by Jack London, now available from Rising Books, BCM ITP, London, WC1N 3XX, is an old book about a Revolutionary - Ernest Everhard who wants to overthrow an oligarchy in America. Much has been said about this book, but I found it a bit of a let down. OK, it shows how people who oppose the powers that be can be destroyed by the newspapers etc. and it even mentions the Rothschilds as being an example of who the oligarchs are, there's also good stuff in there showing how too many clergy are working for (whether they know it or not) a system whose only God is Mammon (profit). But the answer isn't materialist Socialism as this book tries to make out. London (through Everhard) waxes lyrical about Sociology and the study of evolution - well the latter is an unproven theory which doesn't stand up to close inspection (read the Evolution Hoax Exposed by A.N. Field available from Final Conflict) and having studied Sociology myself I know that it is a load of twaddle concentrating merely on Capitalism & Communism and heavily influenced by Jewish con merchants like Marx and Fraud - sorry, Freud. Indeed London sometimes extolls Marx in the book. No, I'm sorry I don't care if London was "racist" I don't like Marxists and aside from a few small points I didn't much care for this book.

MUSIC

Many Nationalists will remember Jello Biafra as the lead singer of the punk band, the 'Dead Kennedys'. This is the band that wrote the infamous song, pleasantly titled "Nazi Punks F Off". Aside from being an anti-fascist band though, many of their LPs were excellent.

Recently a Jello Biafra/DOA joint LP showed an impressive insight into American culture, especially in the song 'Full Metal Jackoff' which exposed the CIA role in drug smuggling and their aims of a New World Order.

However the more sickening side of Biafra recently reared its head. On his latest single with Mojo Dixon there's one song entitled "Will the foetus be aborted?". It's a "fun" song which ridicules abortion. Now as we know 99% of Reds support the murder of the unborn as a "women's right to choose". However even most Reds would hardly consider the experience as something to laugh or joke about. Many women are mentally scarred for the rest of their lives when they realise what they have done. This record exposes the lefties so-called "care for the women" as a farce, let alone their barbaric "throw away" mentality when it comes to unborn children.

Happily it seems that Biafra's not too popular amongst his former lefty friends who think he's sold out - especially after appearing on MTV - and received a kicking from them. I can't muster up too much sympathy, can you?

HAIL VICTORY

For obvious reasons this Skrewdriver LP has far more meaning than any other. Ian's death has robbed Nationalism of a great singer-songwriter and his like will never be seen again. A sad, sad loss.

I had heard that this LP was one of Skrewdriver's best, but in the back of my mind I assumed that people were saying it because of its relevance rather than its contents.

How wrong I was. This could be Skrewdriver's best ever LP. Not only are the songs powerful and melodic, but the production of the LP is the best on any Nationalist LP. It has the quality of a top heavy metal outfit and I must admit that it adds so much to the LP it's unbelievable.

It starts with the Skrewdriver trade mark; a short intro, leading into the first song. 'Hail Victory' is an absolute corker, powerful with an excellent chorus. 'Vampire' contains some of the best guitar work on the album. Stigger is without doubt the best guitarist Skrewdriver ever had. 'White Noise' is a great track and as with so many of the songs on the LP would really get an audience singing along. 'House of Treason' is an unusual song - more like talking than singing, not one of the better tracks in my opinion. 'Mother Europe' - dedicated to all of Europe's Martyrs - has some great lyrics. As has become the habit in recent Skrewdriver LPs the last song on side one is a ballad. This really is a brilliant song, very similar to 'Freedom, What Freedom?' by the Klanmen, but even better.

The opener on side two is possibly the best on the LP. 'European Battle Song' would have gone on to become an anthem at concerts - it's a real sing-a-long. 'We March to Glory' follows with a Rose tattoo feel to the guttaring; heavy and powerful. The ninth song 'Renegade' is an excellent song about traitors to the Movement who rip off Comrades and get involved in back stabbing, sadly very relevant to today. 'Fools No More' is next and again the lyrics are excellent, attacking those leaders who lead from the back and treat activists as fodder and fools. The last-but-one song is 'Time to Die' which again has a heavy metal feel to it. The chorus about 'living life to the full' is very reminiscent of Ian and a strong message to all. It also includes a rare but excellent guitar solo.

The final song is an absolute classic. It's a slow ballad, similar to 'The Snow Fell'. The song tells of the gallant volunteers of the Waffen SS and their train ride from Berlin to the Eastern Front. I must admit this is one of my favourite Skrewdriver songs. The vocals, the lyrics and the guitarwork are all superb. Really atmospheric. All in all this LP rates among the best Nationalist LPs ever and I cannot praise it enough. If you are only going to buy one LP this year, make it this one.

CHUMBAWUMBA

A few years ago, searching through a local second hand record shop I came across an LP entitled 'Pictures of Starving Children...' by a band called Chumbawumba. The lyrics were printed on the back, and after a quick read I bought the LP. Despite disagreeing with much of what the band had to say, I agreed with a fair amount too. Chumbawumba ripped to shreds the pathetic self-gratifying 'charity' events such as 'Live Aid' for the farces that they are. They exposed who the real oppressors are - i.e. multinational companies like McDonalds and Unilever. As usual there were attacks on racism but at least they went beyond the typical chanting and bleating of the bandwagon jumping 'pop stars' of today. I went on to buy more of their records such as 'Never Mind the Ballots' an excellent attack on our electoral system, followed by a mini LP of British folk rebel songs that surpassed both their previous efforts.

The reason why I've written this is to give Nationalists who until recently, had never heard of the band, a chance to get some background on them.

Many Nationalists will have heard their (and 'Credit to the Nation's) recent song 'Enough is Enough' which advocates the killing of fascists. The chorus goes:

OPEN YOUR EYES, TIME TO WAKE UP
GIVE THE FASCIST MAN A GUNSHOT.

One of the reasons why this song had a special interest to me was because it was given substantial Radio One airplay. Chumbawumba in the past have been one of the BBC's fiercest critics, labelling them 'racists'. Funny how the smell of money changes one's opinions methinks. One also wonders whether Radio One would give air time to a song calling for the execution of Communists or multi-racialists?

As of late most Marxists have admitted that racism and Nationalism are inherent in society, i.e. it is not only Nationalists who feel the need for self-determination, but the average 'Joe' from next door too. Therefore they know that the only way they can win is in a battle of ideologies.

Chumbawumba have slipped from being "revolutionaries" to reactionaries by advocating the murder of all those they consider to be "nazis". This can hardly be seen to be addressing the root cause of the problem but reacting to its manifestation. The Chumbawumba of old would probably have released a song ridiculing the mega rich Capitalist Roger Taylor's attempts to cash in on the anti-fascist bandwagon, but nowadays I can hardly tell the difference between them. Anyone for 'Live Aid'?

Chumbawumba have also recently been one of the few bands to openly support the IRA. In the past they have "condoned" them because they say the Catholics in Northern Ireland need protection that the State refused to give them. This we know is crap as the State sent in the troops to protect them in the first place, but given that at a recent concert in Dublin they dressed up as nuns and threw condoms into the crowd, we can see how they can support the Marxist IRA, but the Catholic community?

Chumbawumba are a good example of Left wing "revolutionaries" full of hot air who, when it comes down to it are full of reaction and are more than willing to fiddle the system's tune (for money).

First the lead singer of Conflict in a Kentucky Fried Chicken ("for a coleslaw honest") then Crass on CD, then Chumbawumba on Radio One, then Jello Biafra on MTV - what next for the "revolutionary" left?

CELTIC WARRIOR

This is CW's debut offering. It kicks off with 'Sorcerer of Evil' which has no nonsense lyrics that attack the Marxist ethos as the thing that has - and continues to in subtler ways - corrupted and defiled our Race and Nation. The next track 'Fatherland' has an AC/DC feel about it. It's a tribute to our German comrades who continue, against the odds, to stand up to not only the system's lackies - but the very system itself.

'White Eagles of Snowdon' is a 1994 re-mix of the Violent Storm (RIP) anthem, which was to be included on the VS LP. This version will stand as a lasting tribute to Casey, Brian, Darren and Jack. As will 'We Will Never Forget' - the title track of this LP - a song about the tragic deaths.

'Brand New Day' is a song for all you warriors out there, lamenting on the sacrifices needed to salvage what's left of our Nation. 'European Dream' is similar in spirit but brought into the European context. 'White Reich' is a scorcher. If the 'eskimos' hadn't figured this LP out they definitely will with this one. These Welsh lads really know who's running their country. A "bullet-in-the-head" of a song, most certainly.

'Wrath of Zion's' intro includes a chant of "Zion" but I doubt if that will catch on down the football (except maybe Tottenham). The song's about the ongoing battles with the forces of darkness. 'Mississippi' is one for all the good old Southern lads and lassies out there, so let's see those stetsons and lassos at the ready.

If all these songs don't satisfy the most potato-riddled ears this last song should get the plough on the go (??? - Ed). 'Land, Race and Heritage' has a ballad feel about it and is a real classic and a treat for your ears. (enough 'ears' - Ed). If this record review doesn't convince you to do yourself an immense favour and purchase a copy, then you'll be open to accusations of self abuse.

SPQR SCOLPITE NELLA ROCCIA

This is a new 7" EP featuring four Roman NR bands, from 1977 to today. I'd heard four of the bands before and so I knew what I was letting myself in for. Janus, the first Italian NR band, are the first to offer their wares. Now this band are classic, but this song is a bit rough in production, which is understandable given that it's taped live at the NR meeting 'Campo Hobbit' in '77. It doesn't feature on a packed tape I have of them (which is full of gems) so I'm well chuffed. Anyway, to get back to the song, it's a good 70's rock track entitled 'Viva the Europe of the Eagles'. Good stuff. The second offering is from Hyperborea (circa 1993) and is a cover version of Massimino's 'Nostrì Canti Assasini' (Our Killing Songs). Having seen Massimino live I knew what to expect - a sort of acoustic guitar folk-fascist sound, but this one has the added bonus of Hyperborea's drums, electric guitars etc. especially at the end when we're treated to a little electric guitar solo. Brilliant song, just wish I'd learnt Italian at school. Then again, they didn't teach it so I didn't have much choice really. Mind you, I could've learnt French but didn't...

Side two of this EP opens with Intolleranza (circa 1993) Rome's best known skinhead band. This song - Steppa - featured on their aptly named 'Intolleranza' demo tape, but is a different version. It's a classic song, though to be honest I preferred some of their other songs on their demo. A definite 'thumbs up' nonetheless. The last song of the EP is Fight and Victory by Sopra Le Rovine a Roman Rock band still very much alive and kicking. This band is the only one I hadn't heard before and so I wasn't entirely sure what to expect. I was not disappointed. The song, originally by Zona Abrasiva is a real Rock classic. Sort of reminds me of Palazard the old White Noise band, but with much more powerful vocals. You don't need to understand Italian to get jumping about to this one. A 24 carat song. This EP is available from: Libreria Europa, Via S. Veniero, 74-76, 00192 Roma, Italy. It costs about £5 inc. postage and you will be invoiced when sent the single.

THE MR. MEN

I came across a copy of 'Mr. Men Vol. 1' recently. Talk about 'a blast from the past'. Some real gems in this one - Mr. Funny, Mr. Snow, Mr. Jelly etc. Well worth the £1 I paid for it anyhow. Unfortunately Mr. Daydream wasn't on it, but we can't have everything, can we?

If you want your book, LP etc. reviewed, send it in to me a/o FC.

TEACH YOURSELF NATIONALISM - PART TWO

SPIRITUAL REVOLUTION

IN PART ONE of this series, we learnt that the distinguishing characteristic of Nationalism is the fact that it is an essentially Spiritual creed. Whilst Capitalism and Communism dominate a man's life with the scramble for consumer goods, technological gadgets, being one of the "In" crowd - in a word with crass materialism - Nationalism is concerned with the redemption of the soul, the purification of the mind and the freeing of the heart. It is through the assertion of the primacy of Spirit that the material plane of life - economic needs, daily life - is put into its true perspective.

So we believe in the primacy of the Spirit - that a real man is motivated not by greed for money or power, but by the Spiritual values of Honour, Truth, Patriotism and Love. This belief has a truly Revolutionary impact on Nationalism and the Nationalist.

The materialist creeds of Capitalism and Communism preach that the "salvation" of mankind will come through material change. For the capitalist, the highest stage of development for man will have been achieved when his dog-eat-dog mentality has engulfed the globe, and the poor, weak and needy are pushed aside as "economically unviable". For the Communist, it means arranging a society in such a way that the dog-eat-dog mentality is embodied not in some bloated hard-hearted boss, but in the ruthless and impersonal vice-like grip of the State.

Both systems are founded upon the same basic idea: that a change in the structure of society brings about a change in the nature of man. It is the "nationalisation of the means of production" that brings the 'good Communist' into being; it is the "free play of market forces" that creates the globe-trotting entrepreneur.

TRUE ORDER

For the Nationalist, such views are patently absurd. The system does not make the man; it is the man who makes the system. This is true order, for society exists to assist the material and spiritual progress of men, man does not exist for economics and politics. The disorder of Capitalism and Communism can only gain ground when man forgets that Spirit is superior to matter, when man refuses to exercise his free will in defence of his true interests and of the Common Good.

Nationalism does not begin with a call to adopt this economic theory or that social policy, but with a call to Spiritual Revolution. A man can only be master of his situation when he is truly master of himself. This means that before the Revolutionary Nationalist can combat the evil of the modern world, he must first learn to combat the evil within himself.

Everywhere our society is wracked by lying, stealing and greed, but these things can only be overcome by the man who has conquered such vices in himself. How can a man stamp out the lies of the media or the greed of the bankers if he lies to his colleagues or is intent on wealth at all costs? A Nationalist who has not undergone a Spiritual Revolution cannot bring about National Revolution, he can only bring about a change of government personnel, something altogether different.

NEW MAN

The National Revolution can only occur when a New Man comes into existence; a man who has broken completely with the Old Order, rejecting its values and ethos, and has consecrated himself, heart, mind and soul, to the New Order.

Such a line of action is far from easy. The system preaches indulgence in all things: drink, food and drugs; it argues that the individual stands higher than either Family or Nation. The end results of this corrosive philosophy can be seen all around us: drug addiction, exploitation of the poor, pollution, slum housing, violent crime, cruelty to animals, AIDS and sexual perversion. Such disorder is the logical consequence of any materialistic creed.

SACRIFICE AND STRUGGLE

The Revolutionary Nationalist, in pursuing his objective of Spiritual Revolution, takes a wholly different attitude. For sacrifice and struggle are central to the life of the Nationalist. They are the means whereby we combat destructive self-interest with the Common Good of All; where our asceticism and moderation purges indulgence; where the easy way out is confronted by the demand for JUSTICE - whatever the cost.

HOLIDAYS FOR NATIONALISTS

If you would like a holiday:
in marvellous surroundings, in an area not spoiled by tourism with the cleanest sea, beautiful villages and wildlife;
with excursions to beautiful, historic parts, fishing, diving, climbing, parachuting, sailing and windsurfing;
whilst helping our cause as your money helps a country that has stood against Bolshevism, and Comrades who are now fighting creeping liberalism;

Then Croatia is the place to go. Away from the front line, this holiday offers tranquility, culture, sports and lots more.

The importance of the New Man, of Spiritual struggle, cannot be over-estimated. The New Man is the builder of our New World - if he does not come into being where is our Revolution? And this New Man is you, the reader, for such men and women have to be moulded from the materials at hand, no matter how imperfect.

If you truly love your country and want a real future for your children, you must do all that is necessary to bring our New Order into being. But first you must change yourself so that you can change the world. Men not programmes; Action not platitudes. The sacrifice demanded of us all is enormous, but the reward is immeasurable.

ANIMAL RIGHTS IS CRUSTYVILLE
Dear FC,

Could you please send me your merchandise catalogue? I have a copy of Final Conflict, which I think is quite good. I'm not really into the ALF or hunt sabotaging myself, as you usually find the commies and other 'crusties' taking part in it a lot more than Nationalists. But if that's what some Nationalists want to do, then it's up to them, that's what I say.

For Race & Nation,
A.B., East Anglia,
England.

HELLO FROM THE UKRAINE
Dear FC,

thank you very much for FC, it was very interesting. I would like to see more on South Africa though. All White Christians must stand up to defend the Whites in South Africa.

The Ukraine is split in two parts:

1. East Ukraine is mostly Russian speaking and was under Russia for 280 years.

2. West Ukraine is mostly Ukrainian speaking and was under Poland for 300 years. The only Nationalist organisation in Ukraine is in Lvov.

I wish you all at FC happiness, prosperity and health. Long Live Almighty God! Long Live the White Race!

For White Rights,
A.S., Lvov,
Ukraine.

RED COWARDS

Dear FC,

I'd seen a few of the enc. sticker (see below this letter - Ed.) put up around here but I thought they weren't serious, but on seeing the freaks that attacked me and some Comrades in Leeds for being Nationalists (120 of them onto four of us including a girl) it is definately a successful recruitment sticker.

Your Comrade,
R.J., Leeds.

ARE YOU...

A DRUG ADDICT?

AN AIDS RIDDEN QUEER?

A PAEDOPHILE?

A NEW AGE PARASITE?

IF SO YOUR PLACE IS WITH US

FC SUPPORTS ULSTER

Dear Comrades,

many thanks for the copy of FC which was as good as ever. I really enjoyed it.

I was reading in a regional "Blood & Honour" an article ripping the back out of FC. As long as I live I'll never understand the reasoning behind the in-fighting and back-stabbing amongst "the right" on the mainland. So much could be achieved if everyone shared resources and showed a united front against our enemies!

Invicta,
Loyalist PoW,
Long Kesh, Ulster.

ULSTER DAWN IS BACK

Dear Sirs,

a couple of years ago Ulster Dawn ceased publication after only 3 issues. I have relaunched it with the publication of Volume 2 Issue 1, which has 16 pages and a glossy cover.

As it is the 20th anniversary of the Loyalist Ulster Workers Council Strike of 1974 it has a 4 page feature article. The article will bring back fond memories of a Loyalist victory for those old enough to remember it and will be an eye-opener for our younger readers.

In an article about the Brook centre we name the two Tory ministers who are having a homosexual affair. We also have articles on Neil Latimer and Thomas Green, two innocent Loyalists who are doing life for crimes they did not commit.

In an exclusive article we expose the "Socialist Workers" as the Republicans that they are.

In what will be a regular feature ('the Kincora File') we print the proof that Ian Paisley lied about Kincora. It also has articles on economics, Sinn Féin/IRA and much more.

For a copy of UD, your readers can send £1.50 (cheques etc. payable to 'Open Revolt') or eight second class stamps to the address at the bottom of this letter.

I've seen an article in a "Blood & Honour" claiming that FC supports the IRA. This is a lie as FC and all the folk who produce it have given Ulster nothing but support. To print such lies is nothing to do with honour, one wonders if the person who wrote it even knows what the word means.

On May the 5th an RUC Inspector called at my home to tell me that "the Provisional IRA are planning to kill you" (a detailed article about this will appear in the next Ulster Dawn, God willing). FC is still supporting me and Ulster and will do so when I'm dead. I cannot say the same of the author of the aforementioned lies.

Yours for Ulster,
Stuart McCullough,
Editor, Ulster Dawn,
PO Box 432, Belfast,
BT4 3AZ, Ulster.

MIRTH

The fanzine for fun-seeking fascists. Cartoons, stories, photo's etc. For a copy of issue 1, send 50p and a stamped SAE to: Mirth, c/o BCM 6358, London, WC1N 3XX. (£1 overseas). Cheques etc. to Boardies Music Club.

YOUNG CRUSADERS

Decent books for children in this mad 'politically correct' red multi-racial nightmare. Beatrix Potter's books; Mark Twain, Grimm's and much more. For a catalogue send a stamped SAE to: YC (books), BCM ITP, London, WC1N.

TECHNOLOGY FUND

RECENTLY FINAL CONFLICT launched a technology fund to enable us to buy an IBM compatible computer and ink jet printer. This basic equipment will make FC look far more professional (and make the typeface easier to read) and shorten the production time considerably. The target for this appeal is £500.

With the current outdated equipment, it takes well over 20 minutes to print out an A4 sheet and there are often print out mistakes which means it has to be done, all over again, until it comes out right. Sometimes one piece has to be printed out four or five times before it is good enough to use. This adds considerably to the time it takes to put FC together.

Any excess money raised will go towards buying a fax machine to link us up with other NR activists and make the relay of articles, info. etc. easier; and other computer equipment such as a modem and scanner.

It is hard for us to impress upon you just how urgently this new equipment is needed. We do not ask you to donate lightly. If FC is to continue and expand we must have this new equipment. Please help us as much as you can.

Donations so far: MJD; Yorkshire, England. £5. MM; Newport, Wales. £2.10. C.B.; Bristol, England. £10.

Please make all cheques etc. payable to 'FINAL CONFLICT' and send them by recorded delivery to: FCTF, BCM 6358, London, WC1N 3XX, England. Remember to enclose your name and address and make it clear what the money is for.

My anger over racist leaflets

SIR — I have just seen three leaflets which have been posted through the door of a friend in Allerton, and presumably many others.

One is full of racist rubbish from the BNP (stop immigration, start repatriation, etc), the second is more repatriation driven from English Solidarity (Against Multiracialism), and the third is a well-reasoned leaflet entitled 'What's Wrong with McDonalds'.

I am disgusted:

● That fascist propaganda is coming into people's homes unsolicited (whatever happened to the Race Relations Act?).

● That racists should make use of a good animal rights leaflet to sneak in a bit of xenophobia — "Americanisation is threatening to destroy Britain" is one of the comments added to the original text.

To all those who may have been misled I would like to say: please don't think animal rights = fascism; and if you see someone trying to put a BNP leaflet through your door, tell them where to stick it.

David Roman, Great Horton Road, Bradford.

DAVID ROMAN wrote into the Bradford 'telegraph & Argus' late last year to moan about someone pushing a Blood & Soil leaflet through his letterbox. Roman, who lives at number 271, seems to think only marxists and liberals can care about animals. Mr. Roman - Tel. 0274 504262 - is quite happy to encourage others to assault leafletters he doesn't agree with. Oh dear, how unliberal. He'll be wanting to ban 'Satanic Verses' next. It's how Hitler started y'know, waffle waffle...

VIOLENT STORM FUND VIDEO

This video, featuring SQUADRON, SKULLHEAD and SKREWDRIVER, playing in the English Midlands, 1992, helps the families of the dead men as all the profits go to them. The concert was held shortly after three members of Violent Storm and a follower of the band died in a car crash on their way to a concert they were due to play at, in Spain.

The video is available in VHS, PAL Format only and costs £14.99 in the UK, £16.99 in Europe and £19.99 outside Europe. Please make all cheques etc. payable to VIOLENT STORM FUND and send them to: VSF, c/o BCM 6358, London, WC1N 3XX, England.

This is the only genuine VSF video.

OVER THE YEARS some well dodgy people have got themselves involved in the Nationalist cause. Of course there are many people with genuine differences and grievances, but we're talking about weird people who to be honest have no place in 'Nationalist' circles.

If you were to put up categories of people on a "hit list", near the top - if not at the very top - would no doubt be homosexuals and satanists. Both of these 'groupings' (no doubt 'politically correct' liberal-types would call them "communities") are the enemies of genuine National Revolutionaries. Certainly we at FC would not touch anyone connected with either lot with a barge pole!

However - both lots have sneaked into 'Nationalism' and here's just two examples:

NSDAP/AO

These lot are headed by one Gerhard (Gerry) Lauck in the USA. They are hardline National Socialist and print a number of papers (one in German, one in English, one in Swedish, one in Spanish and one in Hungarian). They push a lot of NS propaganda all over the world and their stickers (which feature a huge swastika flag) appear all over the place. As can be seen from their German language paper below, they fully support Michael Kuhnen - a KNOWN homosexual who has since died of AIDS. The NSDAP/AO cannot claim ignorance because Kuhnen was a known faggot for years before that front page was printed.

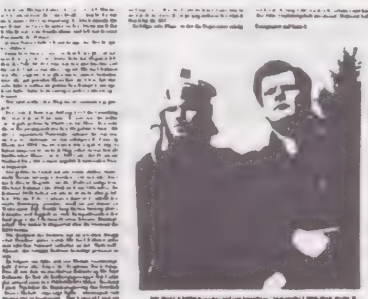

NS KAMPFRUF

HAFTSCHRIFT DER NATIONALSOZIALISTISCHEN DEUTSCHEN ARBEITERPARTEI AUßERLANDS - UND AUSSAARERATION

MICHAEL KÜHNEN

Ein Kämpferleben

A full front page of the NSDAP/AO's German paper NS KAMPFRUF is dedicated to Kuhnen.

ARLP

The Aryan Racial Loyalist Party are a little heard of grouping based in Ohio, USA. In an interview with 'Aryan Warrior' zine (Issue 2, 1992) their "party dictator" (ho ho) said "I have contact with Anton La Vey's First Church of Satan... And I have the Realist publishers (splinter group from Anton La Vey's organisation) in New Zealand." The ARLP's symbol (used in the fanzine alongside the interview) is a Pentagram, used with two points upwards like Satanists do.

Unfortunately the ARLP is not the only "Nationalist" grouping which dabbles with or is linked with Satanism. If we uncover any more we will let you know.

Comrade Assassinated!

1500 Demonstrate in Dresden

The front page of the NSDAP's English paper THE NEW ORDER shows their German 'martyr' Rainer Sonntag standing in front of a banner with Kuhnen's name on it.

These scum are used to smear decent Nationalist and the genuine National Revolutionary cause. The sooner they 'call it a day' the better.

INFORMATION is wanted on any groups, individuals etc. who claim to be Nationalist but are Satanist, homosexual etc. - whether openly or otherwise. Please send documents etc. to back up allegations. Nothing will be printed that isn't absolutely proven. Confidentiality will be respected, if desired. Send info to:

Final Conflict,

congratulations

To Ian & Janine from Reigate, England

Matt & Mary Jo from Virginia, USA
on their marriages.

Everyone at FC wishes them all every happiness in their lives together.

REGIONAL NEWS

THIS COLUMN IS published in order to provide Nationalists with an insight into what is happening across the British Isles. We will keep certain events and details from the public domain for obvious reasons in that our enemies make a point of reading Final Conflict (we hope they enjoy it). As we support the Third Position, naturally some of the reports will be on their activities. We do stress however, that we are not an official Third Position publication (as some red papers would have you believe) we are an independent National Revolutionary Journal. Happy reading...

BIRMINGHAM

Activists have been busy in Birmingham University putting up stickers and passing around copies of 'The Anvil' the Nationalist student paper. This brought a response from 'Redbrick' the student paper which condemned the appearance of the stickers. Interestingly this bit of "moralising" against "evil nazis" appeared above a piece advocating homosexual "rights" which featured a photo of a black man and white man naked together. Moral crusaders eh?

Not happy with this though a student using a false name had a piece in 'Metro News' a free paper in Birmingham, moaning about racism on campus. Oh yes - never mind abortion, faggots, usury, violent crimes etc. "racism" is the real evil we're told. Meanwhile a non-white student wrote into the student mag to moan about giving the Third Position publicity, only to be told that the mag is thinking of running a large article on the nasty Third Position...

YORKSHIRE

Students selling Socialist Worker moaned in 'Leeds Student' (4/2/94) how they were attacked by Nationalists. They are content to hand out Anti Nazi League (ANAL) leaflets provoking violence against Nationalists and are more than happy to throw missiles at Nationalists from behind police lines, but whinge in public when hit themselves.

Then in March when the so-called hard men of Anti Fascist Action (AFA) took to the streets, along with the ANAL folk (who are so opposed to violence when directed against them), it needed twenty of them to attack one Nationalist whilst the police looked on.

Meanwhile the Northern Star (which used to be called Leeds Other Paper) was closed down. This paper was a Communist run affair, pushing all sorts of obscenities to the young impressionable people who read it. They claim the 'shut down' was due to finances, but given how often its premises had been attacked by the decent people of Leeds, one wonders if insurance premiums had anything to do with it.

Final Conflict got a mention in Leeds AFA's paper 'Attitude' Spring 1994 edition. Apparently they think FC is "... notable only for its extreme anti-semitism, love of fascist history and hilarious front groups (eg. the Patriotic Vegan Society)." Fame at last eh? ha ha.

SOUTH WALES

The Reds in Cardiff recently put up posters saying that all Nationalists should be given compulsory euthanasia. Can you imagine the outcry if, for example, we did something similar against Socialists or Zionists? These posters are believed to be the work of the same low lives who put up anti-Third Position posters (which used foul language where children would see them) along with posters saying "Violent Storm 4 down, 1 to go". The shop 'Chapter & Verse' in the David Morgan arcade in Cardiff town centre is still selling Communist & Anarchist papers & mags and recently took to selling a pro-IRA Glasgow Celtic (football club) zine.

Piers, a local SWP/ANAL organiser who plays second fiddle to his wife comrade, and works in the social security offices in Westgate Street, is still selling SWP papers in the town centre and Albany Road in Roath. His house in Arran Place, Roath, has been daubed on numerous occasions by concerned locals who despise having two Red activists living in an otherwise fairly decent area.

The SWP/ANAL moaned about their stall in Albany Road being attacked by locals. Their petition to get "nazis" out of Roath and Cathays was signed by a pitiful half dozen or so people from just about everywhere except Roath & Cathays.

Meanwhile up the valleys the Reds have been busy trying to mobilise all the druggie drop outs. Locals have told us that they are fighting to keep their streets clean of this vermin as well as putting pressure on faggots in the area to clear off. Apparently the Welsh Communist Party which tries to pass itself off as a Welsh Nationalist grouping is busy muscling in on the area, though genuine Welsh speaking Nationalists are more than prepared to stand up to the red rabble. They stood a candidate for the area in the Euro Elections.

In Merthyr, Mike Jenkins the Red school teacher has reared his ugly head again. He was active when the old NR National Front was active up there. He had a letter printed in Cymru Goch's paper 'Y Faner Goch' boasting of his and the local CG's role in beating the "fascists" both then and now, but that his lot were not fooled by the SWP/ANAL's publicity stunts and recruiting drives.

The ANAL/SWP lot have been busy carting old Leon Greenman around South Wales. This professional survivor has spoken at numerous meetings and has appeared on local TV spreading hysterical "historical" lies and disinformation.

It seems that the memorial in Cardiff to the terrorist international brigade who fought with the communists in Spain isn't very popular with locals. Maybe it's because their local tax money was used to fund this memorial to red terror that it is being defaced so regularly.

EAST ANGLIA

Third Position activists made the front page of a regional paper and East Anglian news after blitzing their area with propaganda. Now their local MP and council have spoken of the need to deal with "civil unrest". Never mind the muggings, the drug pushing, the faggots etc. - it's obviously the Nationalists who have to be taken care of. After all the corruption, having local forests privatised, faggots making areas unsafe after dark, American servicemen (often coloureds) taking over local housing, the politicians are content to let the region be ruined, as long as the nasty 'fascists' are dealt with. No wonder more and more locals are turning their backs on the establishment and choosing the Third Position.

ULSTER

ACTIVISTS IN ULSTER have been extremely busy of late. Sales of their pro-Independence magazine 'Ulster Dawn' have, we're told, been going very well with Loyalists buying thousands of copies door to door, at rallies etc. In the Euro elections there were three candidates who stood on an 'Independence' ticket, the most prominent being Rev. Hugh Ross, of the Ulster Independence Committee. Sadly, as has been the case when radical Loyalists have stood before, people tend to stick to voting for the old 'fur coat brigade' - i.e. Ian Paisley and his fellow sell-out cronies. Realising this would be the case, Third Positionists in Ulster set out to bring the truth to the people of Ulster. Thousands of posters went up proclaiming 'Ian Paisley is a liar. Kincora.' Now to people outside Ulster this won't mean a lot, but to the people of Ulster it speaks volumes. Kincora was a children's home run by a "Loyalist" child molester. To cut a long story short, Paisley was involved by covering up facts. The activists in Ulster also handed out leaflets with evidence that Paisley lied about Kincora printed on them. This is said to have angered Paisley so much that he turned an election press conference into an attack on our folk saying that "he'd see them in court". Paisley wouldn't dare though because he lied and covered up for a paedophile bastard and everyone who's looked into the Kincora scandal seriously knows it. Unfortunately, the Third Positionists in Ulster are the only ones with the guts to say so publicly. They'll continue to until Paisley falls. For a copy of their leaflet and more info on Kincora, send an SAE to: UD, PO Box 432, Belfast, BT4 3AZ, Ulster.

THE REAL SCHINDLER

THE CASE OF one Oscar Schindler, currently the hero of a new Spielberg movie called Schindler's List which is based on the novel by Tom Keneally, proves beyond doubt that Hollywood is truly entitled to its nickname, "the dream factory". In the case of Schindler's List perhaps the term "the nightmare factory" would be more appropriate.

Schindler, the latest HERO OF THE HOLOCAUST is presented as a German businessman who, playing the role of Pled Piper, leads a column of poor (why were they always poor?) Jews across Poland to safety after he decides he has made enough brass from slave labour. Much of his wealth was in fact generated from war production and while ever the money was to be made, the German born Schindler supported the National Socialists. But Schindler was in fact a traitor, blackmarketeer, thief, extortionist and paedrist who molested young girls who came under his control (children of his slaves).

Schindler's sudden conversion to "saviour" of the Jews, only occurred when he obtained information from senior political acquaintances which confirmed that the war would be over in six months or less. Always managing to stay one step ahead of the police as a result of his criminal activities during the war, Schindler now decided to stay one step ahead of avenging Jews by pretending that he had in reality "always loved them" and was prepared to use all of his ill-gotten gains to help them. Naturally, there is nowhere mentioned in the Schindler saga the fate of the many Poles, Russians and others whom he had exploited and ill-used. They were after all, only Poles and Russians.

On the other hand the SS leadership in Poland and the Ukraine, while not adverse to working some of their slave workers to death, were fanatics in their determination that German soldiers and officials in the East would not become physically involved with women or girls in the occupied territories. Contrary to general belief rape was punished by firing squad or the hangman's noose.

Schindler, convinced that his high ranking friends in the Nazi Party would protect him, continued to cut a swathe through the young girls and boys under his control unaware that his activities were the subject of discussion for SS General Heinrich Mueller, head of the Gestapo. Charges of official corruption, theft, brutality towards prisoners, indecent assault towards females and a charge of sodomy under paragraph 175 of the German criminal code were all being prepared against Schindler before the War ended. A letter from the file of Himmler's security chief, Ernst Kaltenbrunner, confirms this. In view of the increasing doubts about the extent of the so-called "holocaust" which are emerging throughout the world it is quite understandable that Zionists choose to ignore Schindler's less likeable traits and promote him instead as a guy (word used by Jews to describe non-Jews) saviour. After all anything that works to make the goyim swallow the holocaust story, helps strengthen the Zionist/Israeli cause.

The mere fact that the Zionists chose Spielberg, the master of fantasy film to direct this motion picture, says it all. As for Tom Keneally, the creator of this fiction, his record is clear enough. We should remember that this same Keneally was the creator of that other work of fiction "The Chant of Jimmy Blacksmith" the supposed story of the half-aboriginal murderer, Jimmy Governor. The subject of that story was a murderous, half-witted thug who like the late, unlamented Oscar Schindler has now been deified through the efforts of Keneally and his ilk.

So when you go to the cinema or take out the video depicting the activities of the "hero" Schindler, just remember you are, by paying good money to see this rubbish, financing the activities of history distorters and Zionist murderers who have committed crimes as bad or worse than those carried out (elegedly - Ed.) by the Nazis during World War Two. And if you have doubts about the ability of the Zionists to make capital out of other people's misery and other people's fiction, just consider for a moment the EXTENT OF THE ORCHESTRATED propaganda surrounding and promoting this film.

FRIENDS AND ENEMIES

WE'RE GOING to keep this issue's 'F&E' fairly short, due to lack of space. There's one sticker from the enemy - the 'Communist Action Group' to be precise. This is a new (front) group. Interestingly one of their other stickers ('Smash Fascism - Fight Racism' yawn there's original) also has the address of AFA on it. Our European Comrades will notice these reds, like all others, support the terrorist IRA. Any info. on the CAG welcomed.

The second sticker is a goody. As we all know the reds (whether socialists, anarchists, trots etc.) are predominantly from the middle class. This sticker is an absolute gem. Well done to the local activist who knocked it up. Good stuff.

*Anarchism

THIRD POSITION

The third sticker is an anonymous one. We think it comes from the North of England. Oh but what a corker it is.

None too subtle are our Northern Comrades and not only is this one good fun, it also presses home an important point, i.e. those who founded and ran (not to mention funded) Communism were, on the whole, from one racial group. Yep, those pesky eskimos again. Get everywhere don't they?

Send any stickers for 'F&E' to the usual FC address.

RANTING RON

THE MEL GIBSON OF FINAL CONFLICT

I came across an animal rights stall the other week. As I approached the woman running it was in mid 'slag off' of the BUAV (large anti-vivisection group) for raising money and spending it on wages and offices. I brought up the subject of the ALF (Support Group) kicking out fascists which she, in front of a lady taking leaflets, said was wrong. But she then went on to say "Do you know the only party in Britain which is in favour of vivisection?" "Tell me" I replied. "The National Front" she said. I quickly retorted saying how the NF passed a motion at an AGM in the early 80's against blood sports and how it was against vivisection (remember the Hans Reuch interview in 'Nationalism Today?'). I then told her the only government to ban vivisection was 'Nazi' Germany - it was the 2nd law they passed.

She got quite agitated by all these irrefutable facts. She refused to believe that the NF was against blood sports and vivisection and said I was talking 'rubbish' about the Nazis. "Where did you hear that?" She asked. "Read any decent history book" I replied. Then she changed track saying that they didn't do it for the animals. "Did you know Hitler was a vegetarian and animal lover?" I said and added "They did it for both the animals and humanitarian reasons." As I waltzed off I heard the woman who'd taken leaflets ask if what I'd said could be true. Ho hoho. I'd had my say and stirred things up a bit. It's great fun. You should have a go.

CONGRATULATIONS ARE due to Colin Jordan for erecting a memorial to Rudolf Hess at the spot where he landed in 1941 on his peace mission. A student, Ameer Anwar (good Scottish name), who is the head of the 'Anti Nazi League' of Western Scotland, criminally destroyed the stone in front of Scottish TV cameras. No prosecution in the pipeline though, we can't think why.

John Kennedy (pictured above) is the leader of Leeds SWP/ANAL. He's American and studying Arabic at Leeds University. He grassed to the police about folk who attacked his paper sale and a court case was the result. It seems it's OK for him to preach violence against "nazis" but when it comes to the crunch he goes running to the "fascist pigs" and puts his hopes in the "racist judicial system". What a twonkle.

The Levellers (see ANAL gig review) are 'right on' working class heroes to all the crusties who follow them, but in an interview they admit that had it not been for music, they'd probably have ended up being accountants. Hmmm. Working class heroes eh?

Napalm Death gave the proceeds of their 7" single (Nazi Punks F### Off) to anti racist groups - Inc. AFA. If they play near you be sure to go along and give them my regards. I saw them once and wasn't impressed (honest). I wonder if they'll travel the same road as old Jelly Afro, singer of the Dead Kennedys who first sang the song but who's now sold out (see the review pages).

the SHARON DAVIES AWARD

This issues award, for services to political correctness and multi-racialism goes to Dani Behr, co-host of the trendy TV show 'White Man'. She recently boasted that she'd only ever dated one 'The Word'. I don't know if this is true, or a fabrication designed to make race mixing even more 'fashionable' but she gets the award for services against her Race anyway.

THERE IS a Socialist Party of Great Britain (SPGB), you will be pleased to know, operating out of Clapham High Street (who produce the 'Socialist Standard'). However, in an edition of 'Red, Green & Radical' (put out by the Socialist Society) a SPGB advert stresses that they opposed to the Socialist Party of Clapham. This SPGB operates out of London, N12. Oh dear how confusing, which one should we support....

The Ruin Brothers by Stuart

Well done to AC ROMA's fans for showing the flag at a recent game. No doubt the local middle class students will now get 'AC Roma Fans Against the Nazis" stickers done a la AFA/ANAL. When we face them: "Boia Chi Mollai"

IN Italy, the racial political element on the football club terraces is overt and long standing. Groups of supporters known as Ultras have become synonymous with hooliganism, racism and xenophobia.

The appearance of swastika flags and extremist banners shows that Italian soccer's brand of racism has taken a nastier turn. Members of the neo-fascist group Movimento Politico recently appeared on the terraces of the Olympic Stadium in Rome to express solidarity with extremist Ultras from the AC Roma football club.

Sensitive to memories of Italy's fascist past, the government has just pushed through a tough decree outlawing racial discrimination on the terraces and giving clubs the right to ban supporters from their stadiums.

Tony Greenstein (oy vey) treasurer of the Brighton Unemployed Centre and Anti Fascist Action member made the Evening Argus when some evil anti Semite posted him a copy of 'Tales of the Holocaust' the brilliant comic that rips the wild lies of the holohoax to shreds. Tony, founder of 'Ritual Murderers against the Nazis' was a bit upset. Ho ho ho. that'll serve him right for joining a group which openly advocates maiming and killing Nationalists (how reactionary Comrade). What would happen if he & AFA took over? Would we "nazis" and anti-abortionists, anti-Zionists, anti-Marxists etc. be butchered and sent to camps? Certainly his racial cousins in Russia, Spain, Poland etc. did some pretty good holocausting all of their own. but then, it doesn't count when it happens the other way around does it Comrade Greenstein?

"Lipstick Lesbians - Designer Dykes"

WE HAVE witnessed over the past few months how the media can distort images and push unceasingly, morals that go against the very fabric of society. As you'll have guessed from the heading I'm on about lesbians. The newspapers, magazines, radio and TV have pushed this foul 'lifestyle'. Soaps like Eastenders and Brookside have given the impression to young girls that lesbianism is a valid way of life. LETS GET A FEW THINGS STRAIGHT:

1. This is clearly orchestrated - we are being assaulted by this garbage virtually daily in all media forms.
2. These bastards are out to twist and distort our childrens' minds so that more of them become lesbians.
3. Need I add - lesbianism is unnatural and along with male faggotdom is being pushed to destroy what is left of the family.

WE MUST FIGHT BACK NOW. Anti-faggot graffiti must start going up everywhere, preferably without a group's name so that it is rightly perceived as the people fighting back en masse. If done right people will copy it. Let's hit back against the utter scum who want to destroy our 'Faith, Family and Nation'.

RODDY REDSTAR

WORD HAS it that old Roddy "pass me the dope, man" Moreno is thinking of starting 'The Oppressed' back up. For those of you not in the know. Roddy started up Skinheads Against Racial Prejudice (SHARP) who've been responsible for shootings, terrorism etc. against Nationalist skins (esp. in the USA). Dopehead Moreno wants to do a few recordings, probably to be used for political ends (anti-racist etc.) but whether he'll be able to rustle up a band willing to be used as pawns by Communist front groups like AFA, ANAL etc. is another matter.

I was half expecting a bolt of lightning from heaven when Labour leader John Smith was buried on 'the Holy Isle', 'the Isle of the Kings' - Iona, founded by St. Columba (see the review of the book 'Columba' on our review page). How hypocritical for a man who headed a party in favour of homosexuality, abortion and usury, and which sought to destroy the last vestige of Christian civilisation in these isles, to be buried on Iona.
